

As part of the FBI's Community Outreach Program, the FBI will provide free fingerprinting services for youth five years of age and older.

The children's fingerprints are taken by FBI staff and then given to parents/guardians to have in the event of a tragedy, natural disaster, abduction, or runaway situation.